To the Hon.ble Thomas Chittenden Esq.r

Sir

On your exit from the important Office of Governor, which you have so long held by the united suffrages of the people of this State, the Representatives in Gen.l Assembly met, beg leave to address you, and publicly demonstrate the satisfaction they feel in your late administration — The citizens of Vermont must contemplate with pleasure your early and uninterrupted endeavours to establish & maintain the excellence & welfare of this government — and at the same time feel a grateful sense of the many and good services rendered by you as the supporter, guardian & protector of their civil liberties — The Representatives of the people of Vermont upon this occasion request your Honor to accept of them for your late services all that a noble & generous mind can give or wish to receive, their gratitude and warmest thanks — and it is their earnest wish, that in your advanced age and retirement from the arduous task of public life, you may enjoy all the blessings of domestic ease — I am,

may it please your honor,

Sir,

When we were at Woodstock, I supposed that I had among my papers a copy of an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York appointing Commissioners to treat with the State of Vermont — but upon examination I can only find a Letter from those Commissioners to Governor Chittenden, which I do myself the honor to enclose — and am with great

Respect & Esteem

To the Hon.ble

The Legislature of the State of New

Your Commissioners appointed to treat with the Commissioners of New York, on a Boundary Line between the two Governments and the removal of certain Obstacles, which prevent the Obtaining of Vermont into Union with the United States — Report

That in January last they commenced their Negotiations — that after many communications & Conferences with those Commissioners the Business terminated in a repeal of the Act giving powers to the Commissioners on the part of New York; and a new Act was passed by the Legislature of New York then in Session, appointing Commissioners with full & direct powers to treat with us on the Subject of our Appointment — After having a negotiation with them, we agreed to adjourn to Westminster the 6th of July then ensuing, at which time we convened, but by reason of the Indisposition of two of the Commissioners on the part of New York we were necessitated to adjourn to the 2d of September then ensuing at the City of New York when the Negotiations was resumed and closed on the 7th Instant by receiving from the Commissioners of the State of New York, their Official Act which the new present to the Legislature for their Consideration
